

Labor Day

Labor and Liberty

Words and Music
Gabriele Sass

$\text{♩} = 52$

mf F G Em C F G

Voice

1. The sum - mer is end - ing, no la - zy days last. No par - ties nor pic - nics, par -
 2. We build a new na - tion, we build a new land. Our stand - art of liv - ing, the
 3. Cre - ate new a - chiev - ments of free - dom and wealth of team - work and just - ice, of

Piano

mf

4 C F G C

ades have gone past. Soon school will be start - ing and learn - ing re - sume. So toil of our hands. En - vi - sion a fu - ture and fo - cus your strength. Em - kind - ness and health. Set goals and take ac - tion, pros - per - i - ty reigns. When

7 F G C B \flat F

pack up your book - bag and find your class - room. All life is a les - son, we brace ev' - 'ry chal - lenge and take a firm stand. The har - vest is wait - ing in all come to - geth - er then all share the gains. We make and we mark - et, we

10 C F Gm C7 F

learn as we go, the va - lue of la - bor is what makes us grow. — It's boun - ti - ful fields, the farm - er is work - ing to in - crease its yield. — build and re - pair. We draft and we e - dit, we guide and we share.

13 B \flat C F B \flat C F la - bor and li - ber - ty and the pur - suit of our — hap - pi - ness and of our truth. Our la - bor and lib - er - ty go hand in hand. We are the ser - vants who build this great land.

17 B \flat C F C F